

VIDEO WORLD

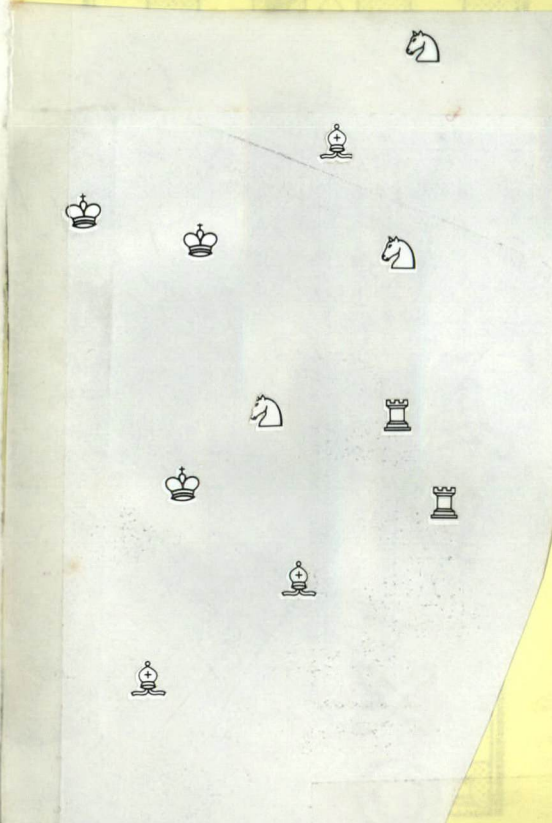

At last! The Video world is with us! The first English Video tape has been produced with RR's Mike Basman explaining the exciting intricacies of the 3 Be2 Line of the Sicilian Defence (1e4 c5 2 Nf3 d6 3 Be2). Tape lasts an hour and is available on either VHS or Betamax (state preference) at only £24 sterling post free!

Professional quality. Don't delay. Start the Video way.

Order from Audio Chess, 7 Billockby Close, Chessington, Surrey KT9 2ED. (Tel; 01-397-1826). Hiring service also available. Ask for details.

AUDIO CHESS

NEWS

1

The magazine for chess nuts and screwballs

Editor-in-Chief : Mike Basman

Production Editor : James Pratt

WELCOME to the alternative and wonderfully instructive world of Audio Chess. Yes, ACN , the mag for chess nuts and screwballs, is here to stay. We offer games with Audio Openings - Are you a French fanatic? A St George's fan? A Sicilian buff? Then you will be in clover.

But here is much more : we present Cassette Reviews, a quiz, Useful Addresses, Swindles, great adverts, Audio Mail Bag, humour and in search of the original, we will shortly be reviewing " The Myers' Openings Bulletin ".

Are you a member of our Library service ?

Do you collect and study the 'Turnover Books' ?

Would you like a top player to discuss one of your games ?

Then rewind and play again until you have mastered every point - then store for future reference. Or wipe and use again

Please buy this magazine. Its contents will help you to improve your chess if you study it thoroughly.

Michael Basman

James Pratt

* ACN * ACN * ACN * ACN * ACN * ACN * ACN * ACN * ACN * ACN *
Audio Chess News is published 6 times a year at £3.50 per annum or 60P for a single issue (stamps accepted). Advertising rates on request. Write to : 7 Billockby Close, Chessington, Surrey (01 397 1826)

Mr Blackburn also wrote :

" Just as a matter of interest, why do you continue to avoid giving your name to any of your many opening innovations ? "

" Must we continue to put up with such as ' The Birmingham Defence '. Perhaps if Miles plays the Sicilian with 3 Be2 or 4 .. Bc5 or even 1 .. g5 against e4, the English team might decide to call them the Neo-Birmingham, Midland Gambit or Tony's Attack. You certainly have more claim than Lopez, Muzio and Petroff. What about a tape on g4 and g5 ?? "

(The naming of Openings is a study in itself and often a very hit-and-miss affair. Miles' team mates at Skara coined the name 'The Birmingham Defence' for the defence 1 e4 a6, which was also played by an English amateur, Baker, in the last century. Muzio & Co pioneered their openings long ago. Louis Paulsen played the 4 .. Bc5 Sicilian line three times against Morphy in the New York Tournament of 1857, and lost every time. Staunton deserves more credit for the Ponziani than Ponziani! Nowadays, getting an opening named after oneself is even more difficult. A cassette on the Grob is planned. " - Pratt)

We leave the final word with young David Dawson of Bourne End :

' Thank you very much for the tapes. I was very impressed by the speed which I received them, the clarity of the lines behind the variations and the tapes have given me confidence to play my new lines in tournament chess.'

should be OK.) 8 Bd3 Nf6 9 f3 fe: (I had doubts about this because of what happened to PN Wallis in his game with Botvinnik - see
 " The English Defence ".
 After some thought I could find nothing wrong with it) (" As white has not inserted 7 Qh5+ the pawn win is possible because black is not weak on the K-side black squares. "-MJB) 10 Be4: ?
Bc3:+ 11 bc: Ne4: 12
fe: Qh4+ 13 Kd1 Qe4: 14
Nf3 Qe2:+ 15 Ke2: Ba6+
 ("The passed a-pawn is not dangerous - think of it as a weak isolated pawn on an open file!- MJB") 16 Ke3
Bc4 (Hoping for 17 a4)
17 a3 Nc6 (Black's pieces seem very active) 18 Nd2 Ba6 19 c4 Na5 (I felt that I now certainly had the better position) 20 c5 00 ("White's bishop is very sickly and goes ill with his pawns; black has also attacking chances - bishops of opposite colour with rooks to give attacks "

 - MJB) 21 Bb2 Nc4+ 22
Nc4: Bc4: 23 a4 Rfb8 24
Bc3 Rb3 25 Kd2 Rf8 (Hoping to win a piece) 26 Ba5 Rf2+ 27 Kc1 Rbb2 (I must be winning?) 28 h3 Rg2:
29 Bc7: Rgd2 30 Ba5 Rbc2+
 (I was very short of time here) 31 Kb1 Rb2+ 32
Kc1 Rdc2+ 33 Kd1 Be2+
34 Ke1 Bf3 35 Rg1 Re2+
36 Kf1 1-0 (White resigned because of the announced mate in six :36 .. Rf2+
 37 Ke1 Rbe2+ 38 Kd1 Ra2+
 39 Ke1 Rfe2+ 40 Kf1 Ra1:+
 41 Be1 Raø1: mate)

(To an IM this might not be a very special finish - but it made me feel like Rubinstein, Petrosian and Basman all in one)

Cassette Reviews by James Pratt

" Sicilian Scheveningen " - Jim Plaskett

(Being an analysis of 1 e4 c5 2 Nf3 e6 3 d4 cd 4 Nd4 Nf6 5 Nc3 e6)

Plaskett has recorded a number of Audio Cassettes recently and this is the first that I have heard; I was impressed both with the confidence of his delivery and the depth of discussion. He packs a great deal into 90 minutes without claiming that this is a complete coverage - at critical points he suggests a key move rather than thrash around trying to examine everything.

If I have to have a criticism it would be the lack of switch off-and-study-the-position points that have become an Audio hallmark and so if you decide to buy this tape (and I think it is worth doing just that) be disciplined enough to turn the cassette off without prompting from the Maestro.

If you are a Scheveningen buff already you will be able to absorb all the material in two or three ' listenings ' but, if not, then you can look forward to a rewarding slog - Plaskett makes no bones about the fact that black has quite a bit to put to put up with (see the Keres Attack 6 g4) but retains good middlegame prospects and chances for counter punches with the thematic ...b5 and ...d5 breaks. Indeed, white often runs out of steam.

An accompanying booklet boasts twenty-one games (three of them with JP at the black controls) and everything is housed in a handy, yet deceptively functional polythene bag.

" Highlights of Haifa " - Stean

This is IGM Stean's account of the 1976 Olympiad in Israel where England finished in the Bronze Medal position, behind the US and Holland.

We begin with a bit of John Nunn's tactical wizardry ('we English take things calmly and Nunn is not a player who likes to exchange queens.') in the match against France and pass on to a Benko Gambit - Kavalek v Miles - later hailed by Barden as probably the game of the Olympiad. There is a pleasing parallel between these two games and both finales are really worth seeing.

Side two is taken up with Stean's own games against Pachman and Schneider, the latter would certainly have won the Brilliancy prize, had there been one. It is no surprise to me that Stean was later to be Korchnoi's chosen second - he really is an excellent analyst.

Perhaps this tape offers more in terms of entertainment than pure instruction, but that is no bad thing; indeed, we take in information best when not trying over hard. Definitely a cassette above the average. Descriptive notation is used.

" THOR "

This is Audio Chess' answer to ' Not the Nine O'Clock News ', a successful and Goonish analysis of two games, Browne v Hort (Wijk aan Zee '75) and Nunn v Basman, (Brighton '80) with a concluding interview with Thor

6 c3 Nf6 7 00 Nc6 8 Re1 Qb6? (8 .. Be7 or h6 or cd: would have been stronger) 9 dc: (9 d5!)
Bc5: 10 Re2 Ng4 11 Qe1
Nce5 12 Ne5: Ne5: 13 Bc2 h5 (Perhaps a little unsubtle, but black can castle long & play Rdg8 + g5) 14 Nb3 Bd6 15 Be3
Qc7 16 h3 g5! 17 Bg5:
(Black threatened g4) Rg8 18 Qc1 (If the bish moves, 18 .. Nf3+ wins.
white could play 18 f4 with complications eg: 18 .. Nf3+ 19 gf: Bf4: 20 h4 Bg3 followed by Bh4: & f6; if 20 Rg2 Rg5: and black is better because he can play 000, Rg8 & f5) 18 .. Nf3+ 19 gf: Bf4 20 Qd1 (Qf1 must be better) Rg5:+ 21
Kh1 000 22 Qf1 Rdg8
23 Ree1 Qe5 24 h4 R5g6
25 Nc1 Qf6 26 Qh3 Rg2

27 Qg2: Qh4: 28 0-1 (If
28 Kg1 Qh2+ 29 Kf1 Rg2: 30 Nd3 Bg3 wins)
MJB comments in the wrong place : ' 5 .. g5!? is possible instead of 5 .. c5.'

And now another win by Dave Blackburn ...

W : D Glossop
B : DB Blackburn
St George's Defence
(Notes by the Winner)
Semi Final - Club KO Event
1 e4 e6 (My club mate knows all my systems, the result being 6 draws in the Semi-finals. So now it was time for my first St Geo's) 2 d4 a6 3 c4 b5 4 cb:
ab: 5 Bb5: Bb7 6 Nc3 Bb4 7 Qe2 f5 (Basman's improvement on his game with Arkell. However, this did mean I was on my own.
If 8 ef: Bg2: 9 fe:
Nf6 10 ed:+ Kf8 and black play 6 .. Qh4 after 6 c4 and this may be enough after 7 Qe2 Nf6 8 c5. He can play 6 .. d6 7 Nc3 Nf6 counter-attacking against white's e-pawn.

There may be another alternative still and this is 6 .. Na6. This would tie-in with black's aim to control the board on the black squares and prevent the advance of white's pawn to c5. For example : 7 Nc3 Ne7 8
Nb5 and black can either play 8 .. d5 or allow the knight in by 8 .. 00 9
Nd6 Qc7 10 Be2 Nc5 11 00
Nb3: 12 ab: Bc5 - Basman)

W : Feinstein

B : Johnstone

1 e4 c5 2 Nc3 Nc6 3
Nf3 e6 4 d4 cd: 5 Nd4:
Bc5 6 Nb3 Bb6 7 Bd3
Nge7 8 00 00 9 Kh1 f5
10 f4 fe: 11 Ne4: Nf5

12 Qe1 a5 13 a4 Nb4 14
Rf3?! d5! 15 Nc3 Qf6

16 g4 Nd3: 17 Rd3: Nd6
18 Bd2 Nc4 19 f5 Bd7 20
fe: Bc6 21 e7 d4+ 22 Ne4
Qe7: 23 Bg5 Qe4:+ 24 Qe4:
Be4:+ 25 Kg1 Bd3: 26 cd:
Ne5 27 Be7 Rf7 28 Bd6
Nd3: 0-1 . Good win, Paul !

ST GEORGE'S DEFENCE

W : GCW Coomber

B : KJ Thurlow

(Redhill Club Championship)

1 e4 e6 2 d4 a6 3 Nd2
b5 4 Bd3 Bb7 5 Ngf3 c5

the well known Czech anagram from Kingston. To say more would be to give the game away, but here are two edited transcripts :

Side 1 :

" Basman : It's for Audio Chess .. err .. the presence of a foreign Grandmaster for one of our tapes and he has ..err.. has been transported here at great expense .. that's enough Plaskett .. shut up Plaskett !

" Thor : He's ruining my tape. Go back to the beginning."

Basman : " I can erase that. We have with us none other than the well known Czech GM, Vlastimil Hort who will be familiar to many of you due to his splendid performances on the BBC 'Mastertime', to talk to us about one of his splendid games. So, speak up ! What's the matter ? "

Thor : " The tournament in Wijk aan Zee was very strong in 1975, actually, and after nine rounds I already had 6½ : Browne only 4½. Well, he had white and probably did not want draw. Just before this game in Round 10 I remember there was brilliancy prize but how to play with this (sic)? Play good positional moves and change not too many of the pieces and just wait for chance."
We'll leave it there. The game, a Clasical Pirc, can be heard when you buy the cassette

Side 2 :

Plaskett : " Does that mean Basman's useless ? "

Thor : " Well, he does have a bit of talent but .. err .. well, I am not so sure. "

Stupid voice is heard : " Well I would like to ask ju-ust w-what you think of British chess in gen-er-al ."

Thor : " You know they have few strong players, Jon Speelman and John Nunn and Tony Miles and they used to have player called Ray Keene - do they still have this player ?"

Basman : " No, he is administrator."

Thor : " Well, he was a good player because he could get draw."

Plaskett : That was a masterpiece.

Thor : " He had a friend who introduced me to someone called Kevin O'Connell who wanted me to write books but maybe I play in touraments."

Scots voice : " Hey. What does the GM think about chess in other parts of the UK in particular, Devon ? By the way, would you like a drink ? "

Thor : " Well, I don't know where Devon is . "

Scot again : " He's pid out of his mind ! "

(Things get really out of hand as Thor discusses women's chess, ' a funny story about Huebner ' and we meet Sir Bumfrey Sutcliffe-Jones and other loonies .)

AUDIO CHESS SPACE FILLER : Question : How many games do the top SCCU Players play a season ? Answer : Next issue names and statistics you won't find elsewhere !!

Paul E Johnstone, a young Middlesex player with a recent simul win over Smyslov, writes :

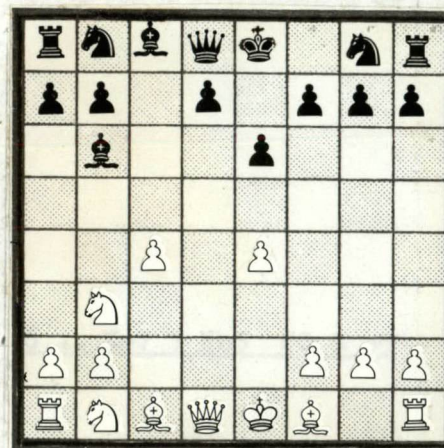

" I have won the follow -ing game with the 'Wimpy' (For an explanation of this name see BCM, Nov '76) I'd be interested in your comments since white's continuation seems to give black a hard game."

W : Stearn

B : Johnstone

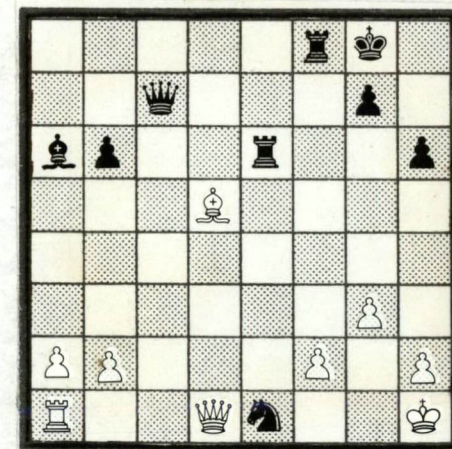

Sicilian with 4 .. Bc5

1 e4 c5 2 Nf3 e6 3 d4 cd:
4 Nd4: Bc5 5 Nb3 Bb6 6 c4

6 .. Ne7 7 Nc3 00 8 c5

8 .. Bc7 9 g3 b6 10 Bg2
Bb7 11 00 f5 12 Bg5 Nbc6
13 Nb5 h6 14 Nc7: Qc7: 15
cb: ab: 16 Be3 fe: 17 Be4:
d5 18 Bg2 Ba6 19 Re1 Ne5 ?
20 Bf4 N7g6 21 Be5: ? Ne5:
22 Nd4 Rae8 23 Ne6: Re6:
24 Bd5: Nf3+ 25 Kh1 Ne1:

26 Be6:+ ?? Kh8 27 Qe1: Re8
28 Qb4 Qc6+ 0-1

(6 c4 is not mentioned on the cassette, but it is quite popular. Black has many possible replies; he can let the bishop go - 6 Ne7 7 Nc3 00 8 c5 Bc7 9 Nb5 Nbc6 - which may not be quite enough. Black can

♙ GAMES, GLORIOUS GAMES ! ♜

Dave Blackburn, an avid AUDIO CHESS fan, sends the following punch-up from Killamarsh :

W : DB Blackburn

B : J Farkas

Queen's Bishop's Attack

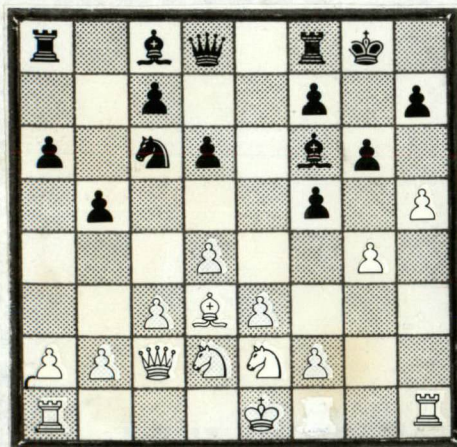

1 d4 Nf6 2 Bg5 d6 3 Bf6:

ef: 4 e3 Be7 5 Bd3 Nc6

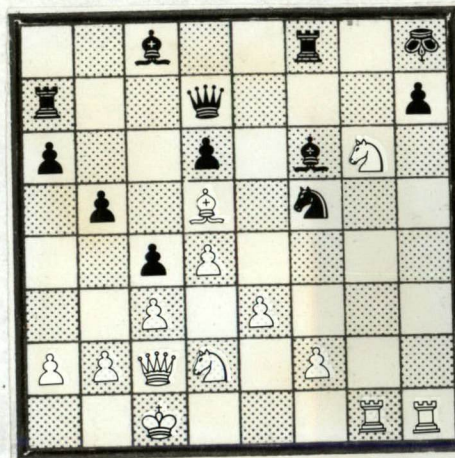

6 c3 a6 7 Nd2 b5 8 Ne2 00

9 Qc2 g6 10 h4 f5 11 b5

Bf6 12 g4 (Remember your article on Kung Fu? Chess Vol 42 P 82)

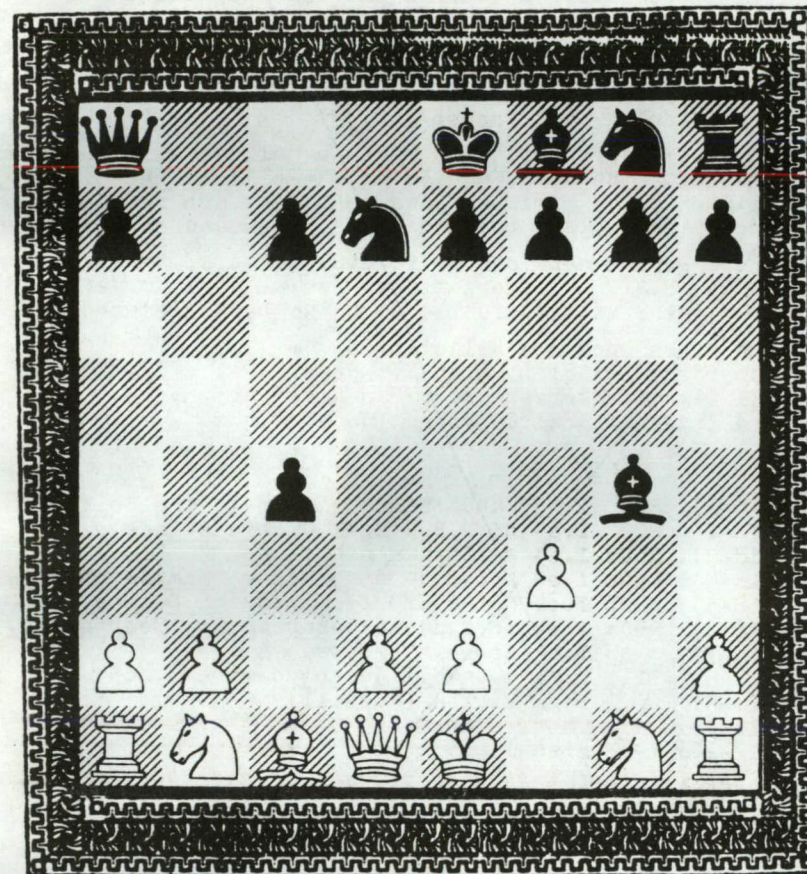

12 .. Ne7 13 gf: Nf5: 14
000 c5 15 Rdg1 Qd7 16 Nf4
c4 ? 17 Be4 Ra7 18 hg: fg:
19 Bd5+ Kh8 20 Ng6:+ 1-0

(A smashing attack against admittedly pale defence. By delaying castling and keeping his king behind the pawns at f2, e3, d4 & c3, white retains his option to advance on the K-side. A limited centre can be a base for wing advances.- Basman)

THE MYERS OPENINGS BULLETIN

Grob's Attack
Gambit Variation, p.3

SUBSCRIPTIONS to this American magazine are £4.50 (6 issues) available from Audio Chess, 7 Billockby Close, Chessington, Surrey KT9 2ED. It reaches the openings other magazines will not touch!

" Audio Chess News " presents its very own quiz page.
Would you like to compile one yourself ? Send us one and we will try to find space to print it.

Below are six anagrams of players names, can you sort them out ?

- 1 Lesu Tudnacant
- 2 El Ginthors
- 3 Slap Tijtmek
- 4 Gum Ryeshh
- 5 Dog Adavnomdi
- 6 Damn Beekhr
- 7 Which Soviet GM was born in 1946 and died in 1975 ?
- 8 What were Morphy's christian names ?
- 9 Who recently set-up a new record for marathon ' 5-minute ' play ?
- 10 Who won the 1981 Benedictine Masters ?
- 11 The only Indian player ever to become British Champion; who was he ?
- 12 In which year did Mike Basman tie first in the British ?
- 13 Who has recorded an Audio Cassette ' The Shadow of the Budapest ' ?
- 14 In what year was Audio Chess launched ?
- 15 Who was the first Englishman to defeat a FIDE Grandmaster?

ANSWERS : next issue but meanwhile get compiling yourself !

openings which are rather specialised. Please send me the tape ' R&P Endings ' by David Hooper. Kind regards ..."

From Belfast's Sans Souci Park we were delighted to hear :

" Congratulations to Jim Plaskett on the Tarrasch Tape :
very useful and it makes a difference to be listening to an interesting voice. Please now send ' Working with a GM ' by M Stean.

Yours sincerely,

Nigel Greer "

Mr John O'Brien, having listened to the 3 Be2 Sicilian tape, dropped us this line :

" Thank you for the loan of the cassette. Although it is a good idea, I found I lost concentration, and finally interest much quicker than I do with books. Also recalling information is easier with a book. Thanking you again. "

Whilst enquiring about the whereabouts of his Petroff's tape,
Mr David Webb added :

" I have managed to win my last three games (2 x Veresov) Thanks. "

Mr G Keeling writes fom Shepley :

" Please find enclosed borrowed cassettes returned, they really are an excellent way to take things aren't they ? "
" Can I borrow : Centre Counter, Nimzo's Other Defence &
the English Defence. "

Mr A Mott writes from Kingston-Upon-Thames :

" I enjoyed very much the Analysis of Individual Positions, given to me by secretary as a birthday present."

" Can you please send me the Sicilian Close, the English Opening and the Fischer/Alekhine Masterpieces. I find the Turn-over books a tremendously convenient size for fitting in the pocket to read on the tube train."

" I hope the Sicilian will help me improve my defence to the King/pawn opening."

PS : " I am not a good player ."

From Stretford Mr Francis Hynes wrote us :

" Many thanks for the hire of the ' English Defence for the 80's ' which I return with this letter. I have not had an opportunity to play this defence yet, but feel more confident about being able to 'READ' what is happening on the chessboard during a game."

" I would be most grateful if I could now hire tape number 24 - Nimzo-Indian, Leningrad by MacDonald Ross. Thank you."

Doctor Cyril Josepshs was really most complimentary :

" Thank you for sending me the cassette 'K&P Endings' by Simon Webb. It took me only one night's play with it to decide I must have it. I am quite amazed how different the effect of spoken tuition is compared with that of a book."

" I agree with all you say about Audio Chess in "Rabbit's Review". The trouble is that the tapes seem to be on

W : J Moyse (142)

B : T Wall

1 d4 Nc6 (This was used by IR Watson at the British in 1980)
 2 Nf3 (The most testing, threatening with great effect 3 d5 so ...) 2 .. d5 3 Bf4 Bg4 4 e3 e6 5 c3 Bd6 6 Bd6: Qd6: 7 Nbd2 e5 8 de: Ne5: 9 Qa4+ Bd7 10 Qd4 Nf3:+ 11 Nf3: Nf6 12 Qe5+
Qe5: 13 Ne5: = (Although black, 'with great endgame skills' managed to lose it in the end)

After losing this position, you can imagine my state of depression so, desperate for a win with 1½/3 ...

W : T Wall

B : S Robinson (157)

1 Nh3!? (As invented by Tartakower and analysed by H Myers..)
 1 .. Nf6 (Pity he did not go into the Amar Gambit with 1 .. d5 2 g3 e5 3 f4!) 2 g3 e5 3 f4 d6 (I am not sure about 3.. e4 - maybe black can defend his e4 strongpoint) 4 d3 Nbd7 5 Bg2 Be7 6 c3 c6 (If here 6 .. h5 instead, then 7 Ng5 threatening 8 Qb3 is strong) 7 00 Ng4(?) (7 .. 00 was better) 8 d4! (Brilliant ! After 9 e4 white's gonna get a great centre) 8 .. ed: (Perhaps another error, but the pressure on e5 is strong) 9 ed: d5 10 e4 Nb6 11 f5! h5 12 e5 g6 13 e6 gf: 14 ef:+ Kf7: (and now instead of 15 Qd3, which 'led ultimately to a mating attack ' on move 43 ?!! , 15 Nf4 is good, threatening Nh5: and preparing h3 .

In Round Five however, I had finally decided to play a normal opening

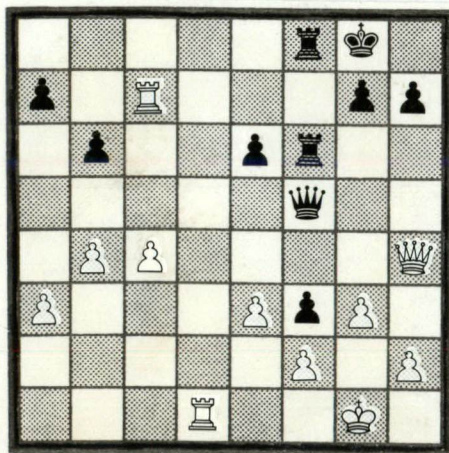

B : T Wall

1 e4 e5 (I was in for a shock when he played ..) 2 f4 (Since I only know of one defence to cross white's plans here, I played :) 2 .. Qh4+ 3 g3 Qe7 (4 d3 I think is supposed to be best - as in a game in ' Kingpin ') 4 fe: Qe5: 5 Nc3 Bb4 6 Nf3 Qe7 7 Qe2 Bc3: 8 bc: Nc6 9 d4 d6 10 Bg5 (10 Ba3 looks better) 10 .. f6 11 Bf4 Bg4 12 h3 Bf3: 13 Qf3: f5! 14 Bd3 Nf6 15 Bg5 fe: 16 Bf6: ef:+ 17 Be7: Ne7: (Black should have won the ending, but blundered in a winning position on move 48 and lost)

And now, Audio Chess News proudly presents :

S W I N D L E S

by D Cooper

This is the position after white's 30th move in the Final of the Coventry U-18's, 1979/80

W : DM Cooper

B : C Shah

Black sealed 30 .. Qc2 . 30..Bh6 would be met by 31 Qe7 and white appears to be surviving.
The reply 31 Rcd7 was obvious, and black promptly returned his queen to its original square 31 ..Qf5. It is not easy to decide on a plan; black will play Qh3 as soon as he gets the chance, such ideas as g4, Qg3, h3, Kh2 will probably run

THE ENGLISH DEFENCE

Since 1977, when the English Defence was first launched into the International Arena by Raymond Keene's tape for Audio Chess, theory and practice on this line has escalated enormously, so that an update , plus a more detailed examination of the underlying ideas, became a must.

The present work, which stretches over two C90 cassettes plus a 34 game booklet, traces the development of the opening from the early P.N.Wallis days in the sixties to the searing Miles games of 1978-80. An especially detailed analysis of the white gambit line includes important turning points such as Browne-Miles, Tilburg 1978, and Magerramov-Psachis Riga 1980, with particular emphasis laid on black's resources in these critical variations.

Only £6.50 from Audio Chess, 7 Billockby Close, Chessington, Surrey KT9 2ED.

USEFUL ADDRESSES!

WHY have we included this ? Mainly because Audio Chess News believes in keeping its readers informed - you can not play chess in a vacuum - you must get in contact with others when necessary !

Editor of " Rabbits' Review " et al : MJ Basman, 7 Billockby Close , Chessinton , Surrey (01-397-1826)

For Simuls, Audio Chess Lessons : SM Taulbut , 174 Kentwood Hill , Tilehurst , Reading , Berks (R-412644)

Basingstoke Grandprix Tournament Director : RE Boxall , 91 Campsie Close , Bucksin , Basingstoke , Hants.

City Chess Organiser : G Goodwin , 63 Aberdeen Park , London Park , London N5 (01-226-9932)

Editor of Chess : BH Wood , 'Chess' , Sutton Coldfield B73 6AZ .

Editor of " The Myers Opening Bulletins " : Hugh E Myers , 1506 $\frac{1}{2}$ Harrison , Davenport , Iowa 52803-4808 USA .

Editor of British Chess Magazine : B Cafferty , 9 Market Street , St Leonards on Sea , E Sussex TN38 0DQ .

BCF General Secretary : P Buswell , 9a Grand Parade, St Leonards-on-Sea , Sussex .

BCF Assistant Coach : MT Bolan , Daneshill School , Oxshott, Surrey (037284-2509)

Should your name be here ?? Please let us know.

into ... h5. Having rejected the idea of Rd8 which would abandon the 7th, I settled for another pawn-grab, influenced by the dubious logic " If I survive this I'll win the ending " and played 32 Ra7: , black's instant reply was 32.. h5, which I had not considered.

At this point I thought I was losing; he either intends to trap my queen with an eventual ..g5, or force it away, allowing ..Qh3. Having decided that Qf4 lost immediately to .. Qh3, I settled on 33 Rad7 with the intention of trying to exchange rooks, since the new hole in the K-side might give me a perpetual, though if one pair were exchanged black might get in ..Qc2 at some point. The weakness of my back rank, thanks to a wretched pawn at f3, was giving cause for concern.

But after black played 33 .. Rh6 , a swindle occurred to me based on the move 34 Qe7 (After the game I found 34 Qf4 Qh3 35 Rg7:+ Kg7: 36 Qg5+ Kh8 37 Qh6:+ with a perpetual, but unfortunately its all fantasy - 36 ...Rg6 37 Rd7+ Kh8 seems to escape.) The threat of mate has to be met; a queen move from theh3-c8 diagonal would give me more time, Rf7 allows the obvious Qf7:+ and Rh7 looks ridiculous, blocking the king's escape route. So black played the 'natural' 34..Rg6, as if to say ' Now I've got you - I'm going to play ..h4 ' So I played 35 Qf8:+ and he looked hard and long, seeing that .. Qf8: is met by Rd8 and eventually going in for 35 .. Kf8: 36 Rd8+ Ke7 37 R1d7+ Kf6 38 Rf8+ Ke5 39 Rf5:+ Kf5: and the rest of the game is not relevant to swindling.

MJB comments : " I did not see that black had much of an attack after 32 .. h5. Why not 33 a4 Rh6 (I suppose) 34 a5 g5 35 Qd4 threatens mate (Rg6 36 Qd3) which seems pretty good. The queen sac on move 35 was very fine . "

Perhaps this next game is not a true swindle, more an instance of 'Provocation to go wrong'.

W : DM Cooper

B : GK Kendall

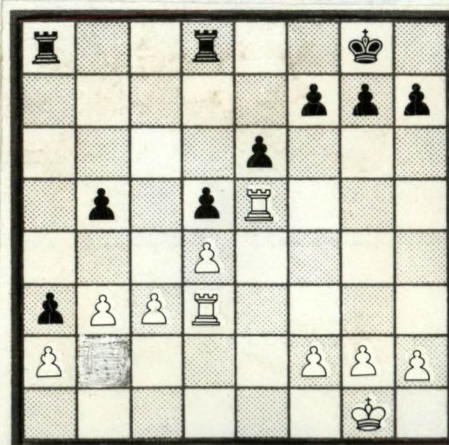

French Rubinstein

1 e4 e6 2 d4 d5 3 Nd2 de: 4 Ne4: Nd7 5 Nf3 Nxf6 6 Bg5 Be7 7 Nf6:+ Bf6: 8 Bf6: Nf6: 9 Bd3 Bd7 10 O-O O-O 11 Re1 Bc6 12 Ne5 Qd5 13 Nc6: Qc6: 14 Qe2 Rfd8 15 c3 . Here in a position where neither side has any advantage from the opening, black livens things up with 15 .. a5 , hoping to create weaknesses. Unwilling to play a4 I ignored it and played 16 Rad1 and after 16 .. a4 went for the queen exchange with 17 Bb5 Qd6 18 Qe5 and black now took the initiative with 18 .. Qe5: 19 Re5: a3 20 b3 Nd5 and after 21 Rd3 c6 22 Bc4 b5 23 Bd5: cd: I thought I definitely stood worse thanks to the horrible looking C-pawn and black's chances of doubling on the C-file and playing ..b4; my draw offer was declined. So I tried for some threats : 24 Kf1 Rdc8 25 Ke1 Kf8 26 f4 g6 - not allowing f5 - 27 Rh3 h5 28 Kd2 Ke7 29 Rhe3 - threatening to take on d5 -

* * * * *

Position after 23 .. cd:

11

29... Kd6 30 Re1 Ra7 31 Rcl Rac7 (At last !) 32 Reel (To meet .. b4 with cb:) Rc6 (Time to assess, I thought , black cannot claim any real advantage now; he's been too slow. Likewise, I can do nothing, and I don't mind a draw - so I'll create a total blockade and offer a draw. If he tries to get through, I may be able to turn that a-pawn to my advantage.) 33 h4 R6c7 34 b4 (With a draw offer. Still thinking he could win, he decided to play for .. g5, just as I had hoped.) 34 .. f6 35 Rle3 Rg8 36 Rg3 g5 37 Re1 Rcg7 38 fg: fg: 39 Rg5: Rg5: 40 hg: Rg5: 41 Re2 (Now black may have realised the folly of his pawn break; only white has winning chances now. Either he missed move 44, protecting the c-pawn , or decided that if he played his rook to a8 he would lose his h-pawn. So after the obvious sequence ..) 41 .. Rg3 42 Kc2 h4 43 Kb3 Rd3 44 Rc2 (Black decides he has to exchange pawns; so he plays :) 44 .. e5 45 de: Ke5: 46 Ka3: but 46 .. d4 (Indicates that he has miscalculated the pawn ending. He had to keep the rook on .) 47 Kb2 dc: 48 Rc3: (He has to acquiesce in the rook exchange or allow Rc5 " with excellent winning chances ") 48 .. Rc3: 49 Kc3 Kf4 50 a4 (Which wins in a study-like finale.) 50 ..ba: (Here I declined to believe his plea that 'this is draw') 51 b5 Kg3 52 b6 Kg2 53 b7 h3 54 b8(Q) h2 55 Qg8+ Kf1 56 Qh7 Kg1 57 Qg6+ Kf1 58 Qh5 Kg1 59 Qg4+ Kf2 60 Qh3 Kg1 61 Qg3+ 1-0.

12